MASONS ENJOYED PHILADELPHIA TRIP

Return Home This Morning After Day Spent on Pilgrimage.

A HEARTY WELCOME.

Playing of "Dixie" Causes Great Enthusiasm—Alexandrians Are Given Great Ovation.

Tired, but happy, and declaring that they had never enjoyed a trip so great dy, the Alexandria Masons who visited Philadelphia yesterday as the guests of the William L. Elkin's Lodge of that city returned home this morning From start to finish pilgrimage was most successful and the Alexandrians were treated with the greatest courtesy by their Philadelphia brethren.

The start from Alexandria and Washington was told in yesterday afternoon's Gazette.The party was composed of 112 men and the trip was made in a special train over the Pennsylvania Railroad.

The trip to Philadelphia was characterized by the utmost good humor and the time passed quickly and pleasantly.

Upon arrival at Philadelphia the party was met by a delegation of the Elkin's Lodge, headed by Worshipful Master Mancill. They were first taken to the store of John Wanamaker, and as they entered the great court in the center of the building which occupies an entire square, the great organ burst forth with the strains of "Dixie." There were at least 5,000 people in the store at the time and as the thrilling melody of the old Confederate battle hymn reechoed through the corridors the rafters rang with applause.

The visitors were shown through all the departments of the magnificent emporium, one of the world's show places. They were taken to the roof where a birds eye view of the "City of Brotherly Love" was obtained.

After spending an hour in the store the party was escorted to the Colonade Hotel where luncheon was served. It was an informal affair but greatly enjoyed. During the course of the meal the band played Southern melodies.

The Masonic Temple, which has no equal in the world, was next visited, and the Alexandria Masons were shown the various rooms used by the lodges who hold their meetings there. The custodian described the various kinds of architecture to be seen in the building, the Grecian, the Norman, the Gothic, etc., and explained their significance.

A tour of Philadelphia was the next thing on the program, and 35 automobiles were used by the party. Independence Hall, Carpenter's Hall, the Home of Betty Ross and Christ Church where "Light Horse" Harry Lee delivered his eulogy on Washington, winding up with the historic words, "First in war, first in peace, first in the hearts of his countrymen" were deeply interesting to the Alexandrians as their own town history is so intimately woven with that of the events of Revolutionary times.

The ride was continued for 60 miles through Fairmont Park, which is unrivalled among municipal parks for the beauty of its scenery and the extent of its area. All speed regulations were suspended and a squad of motorcycle policemen accompanied the party. Although a speed of 50 miles an hour was reached there was no accident to mar the pleasure of the ride. The regulations of Fairmont Park which prohibits flags on automobiles was waived and each machine bore a pennant with the name of Elkins Lodge inscribed upon it. The machines were each numbered and followed one another in orderly course.

At the conclusion of the ride the visitors retired to the hotel at 7 o'clock entered the Elkin's lodge room. A speech of welcome was made by Past Master Kendricks, of Pennsylvania, to which an eloquent reply was made by Charles H. Callahan, past master of Alexandria-Washington Lodge, and one of the most eloquent speakers on Masonic subjects in America. Speeches were then made by Samuel W. Pitts, worshipful master, Charles B. Swan, senior warden, Charles E,. Tennesson, junior warden, of Alexandria - Washington Lodge. Rev. Dr. Wilson, of Philadelphia, who made a wonderful speech in Alexandria on the occasion of the visit of the Elkins Lodge to this city, again thrilled his audience with an eloquent address. There was no work and the evening was given up to social intercourse.

Among the other visitors was Grand Master Winchester, of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, and the deputy grand master of Pennsylvania. During the speeches of the Philadelphia Masons mention was made of the memorial temple to be erected in this city in hon of of Geo. Washington,and hearty assurances of Pennsylvania's cooperation were expressed. A copy of Mr. Callahan's work, "Washington the Man and the Mason," was presented to the Elkins Lodge.

The banquet which followed was a magnificent affair, more than 450 persons being present. It was served in the banquet room of the Temple, probably the most costly banquet room in the world, the decorations alone costing $50,000. The band interspersed Southern and Northern airs and whenever "Dixie" was played the banqueters rose to their feet and cheered their southern brethren to the echo. One of the greatest ovations of the evening was given to Kenneth Ogden, who, in company with J. Walter Humphrey, of Washington sang several selections. They were accompanied by Sherman B. Fowler.

The banquet was concluded at 12 o'clock, and at 1 o'clock this morning the Alexandrians left Philadelphia in their special train of sleepers, arriving in Washington early this morning.

PATTERSON APPOINTED JUDGE.

Governor Tener Names Man Who is Well Known in Alexandria.

John M. Patterson, an assistant District Attorney, of Philadelphia, and a former partner of Cornelius Haggerty, Jr., son-in-law of the late John A. Marshall, was apopinted last night by Governor Tener to Common Pleas Court No. 1, to succeed the late Judge Edward W. Magill. Judge Patterson is well known in Alexandria. The position pays a salary of $11,000.

Governor Tener declared last night that he appointed Mr. Patterson to meet the congested condition in the local Common Pleas Courts, and because of the inability to obtain county judges to preside at this time. He explained that Mr. Patterson had received the endorsement of more lawyers than any other candidate for judicial place, and no objection had been made against his appointment. His name was among the five with the largest votes at the meeting of the Law Association, which failed to endorse candidates because none of the nominees before the association received the required two-thirds vote.

Few men have been elevated to the local Common Pleas Bench at the age of Mr. Patterson. He is 39 years old, and has been in public life since 1901. He was admitted to the bar in January, 1896, having completed the three years of law study in two years. In the following June he graduated from the University of Pennsylvania Law School. He abandoned temporarily the practice of law in 1898 to enlist for the Spanish-American war, entering as color sergeant of the First Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, and mustering out as captain of Company L, 19th Regiment.

His first polittical experience was gained as one of the Municipal League candidate for Magistrate in Feb. 1900. The leaague was reform party at that time. The reform ticket was defeated but he ran ahead of the ticket 3,000. This strength attracted the attention of the leaders, and they took up Mr. Patterson.

Upon the appointment of John L. Kinsey to the bench, Patterson became an assistant city solicitor in 1901. Three years later he was named as an Assistant District Attorney to John C. Bell, now Attorney General. He is now one of the special first assistants under District Attorney Rotan.

Mr. Patterson is a trustee of Temple University, and is serving his third term as president of the Dickens Fellowship.

SCHOOLS TO CLOSE JUNE 16

Proposition For Construction of New Building Discussed Last Night

The regular monthly meeting of the City Schol Board was held last night. In the absence of Chairman Dr. W. M. Smith, Mr. Bradshaw presided. There were also present Messrs.Kirk,Pierce, Thomson, Howard, Thompson, Carter, Nicklin, Cox and Myers.

Superintendent Sweeney read a synopsis of his report for May, which showed a slight falling off in attendance toward the close of the school year. He however, stated that the attendance was in excess of that of other years.

A number of bills were presented by the finance committee and ordered to be paid.

It was stated that complaints had been made by persons residing in the neighborhood of Lee School building of the disorder and annoyance occasioned, especially to sick persons, by the gathering on the grounds after scholo hours of youths not scholars, The attention of the police will be called to the matter.

In an interchange of opinion concerning the work of the public school system Superintendent Sweeney said the services of five additional teachers could be utilized if room could be found for classes.

On motion of Mr. Carter it was decided to begin work of closing the schools on the 16th instant, and $20.00 was appropriated towards meeting the expenses of the same in procuring a hall and providing music, decorations, etc.

Superintendent Sweeney ,Mr. Nicklin and Mr. Carter had favored closing the schools on the 16th, not the 23rd, as had been suggested, as parents of many children had signified their desire for an early closing. Besides it was stated that private schools closed early in the month.

Messrs. Howard, Kirk and Nicklin with the superintendent, clerk and principal of the high school will arrange for are closing exercises.

On motion of Mr. Howard it was decided to elect teachers at the July meeting.

Mr. Carter made suggestions concerning the need of another school building, and favored the erection of the proposed new structure on the lot adjoining the Washington School on South Washington street. He believed this was the best site for the building, and hoped steps woud be taken as soon as posible towards a crystallization of the plan. He gave reasons why he thought the structure should be erected on South Washington street and not on the new lot at Cameron and West streets recently acquired by the city.

After an interchange of opinion concerning the proposed new building the board adjourned.

DECISION IS POSTPONED.

Court of Appeals at Wytheville Did Not Act on Case of Lambert vs. Barrett

The Supreme Court of Appeals was expected to hand down a decision in the case of Urban S. Lambert vs. Robert S. Barrett yesterday, but a telegram to the Gazette from Wytheville is to the effect that a decision will be rendered on Thursday next.

This case has attracted considerable attention and many people in Alexandria manifested their interest yesterday in keeping the telephone busy in making inquiries concerning the termination of the issue.

Upon the resignation of C. R. Yates as a member of the Common Council from the First ward a majority of the members of that body elected Mr. Lambert as his successor, and at the next general election before the people Mr. Barrett was a candidate and was elected, the latter as he understands the law, holding that Mr. Lambert was only elected to serve until said election.

A majority of the members of the lower board of Council, however, took an opposite view and insisted that Mr. Lambert shuld continue a member during the unexpired term for which Mr. Yates had been elected.

Mr. Barrett instituted a quo warrento proceedings and the Corporation Court sustained him in his contention and declared Mr. Lambert an usurper and ordered him to vacate the seat. The latter took the case to the Supreme Court of Appeals.

HELD FOR MURDER.

Charles Donaghe Charged With the Murder of His Sister.

Staunton, Va., June 6.—Charles Donaghe has been arrested charged with the murder o fhis sister, Becy Donaghe, and lodged in jail.

He vigorously protested his innocence and feigned to believe he was being taken to the Western State Hospital for the insane. He is nearly 70 years old, but appears younger.

While he and his sister lived in a squalor, they had a wardrobe of fine clothes, consisting of silks, satins and broadcloths packed away in an old chest.

Those who visited the Donaghe home described it squalid and dilapidated beyond belief for a civilized community. The hovel is a small frame affair back from the road on a 40-acre farm, with nearly all window panes gone and holes in the roof sufficient to let in the elements. The house is surrounded with rank weeds and briars. A flight of rickety steps leads to the sister's room, while a flimsy ladder led to the loft where the brother slept. Poultry and pigs roamed the lower part of the house at will.

They were once refined and in a measure educated people, the sister having taught for a number of years, and both wrote poetry and prose fluently. Theey were connected with a once prominent family.

Officials believe that the brother committed the crime, as they lived at daggers' points for years and never spoke to each other except in a hostile way. Pictures show that in youth both had been well dressed and handsome.

Lawyer Slaps Another.

Ricmond, June 6.—In the course of argument o fa suit in Hustings court Part 2, Tuesday morning, Wyndham Meredith, prominent member of the Richmond bar, misunderstanding a statement made by J. Kent Rawley, opposing counsel beacme highly angered and suddenly slapped Mr. Rawley with considerable force upon the face. Immediate interference on part of several court officials prevented a fisticuff between the two lawyers. As it was only one blow was passed.

Judge Ernest H. Wells severely reprimanded Attorney Meredith for his hasty action and fined him $25 for contempt of court.

Later explanations followed between Mr. Rawley and Mr. Meredith, and when it was found that Mr. Meredith had misunderstood the meaning of the opposing counsel's statement, friendship was restored between the two.

Thirty-eight silk workers who, as pickets, gathered in front of a mill during strike disturbances at Paterson N. J., on April 25, were convicted of unlawful asemblage last night by a county court jury. The defendants one of them a 17-year-old girl, each face a prison sentence of from one to three years or a fine of any amount up to $500 or may be both imprisoned and fined. They probably will be sentenced today.

DISTILLERY TO BE SEIZED.

Revenue Agent Chapman Orders Beaver Dam Plant Taken Over.

Richmond, June 6.—Information reached the office of Revenue Agent William H. Chapman Wednesday night of irregularities at the Beaver Dam distillery, near Clarksville, Mecklenburg county, Sixth Virginia District, which was but recently made a part of Colonel Chapman's division The revenue agent has wired Collector Bailey, at Abingdon, recommending seizure of the plant pending an investigation an dhe has gone to look into the matter personally.

Evidence of probable frauds at the plant has been before the revenue officers for some time, and Tuesday Colonel Chapman dispatched Revenue Agent Pierce ,Special Employe Hansbrough and Special Gauger McBroom to investigate conditions at the distillery. They found, upon approaching the plant, that two barrels of spirits, bearing no revenue stamps as the law requires they should, were being taken from the platorm. Their report was made at once

The proprietor of the distillery is F. W. Harper, who was the government storekeeper-gauger at the Henrico distillery at the time, threatened Deputy Southward with an axe when the latter attempted to examine some barrels as they were hauled away from the plant. This case ,was compromised, being included in the list of distillery cases wiped out by Commissioner Osborn from the district court docket a few days ago.

Harper, however, was discharged from the government service, and, though the case was considered by the district attorney, it has never been placed before the grand jury. W. H. Gooch built and formerly operated the plant. Whether or not he is still interested it not known.

AUTO SMASH-UP.

Machine Leaves Road And Crashes Into Fence.

Strausburg, Va., June 6.—A costly automobile accident, in which narrow escapes were made, occurred when the car in which Lee Winsboro and Geo. Balthis were spinning over the Valley Pike near what is known as the Four Mile House, suddenly left the road and crashed into a wire fence. Balthis jumped, but Mr. Winsboro, who was driving had no chance to do so. Fortunately the fence held the car, thus preventing it from turning over.

Mr. Balthis was so badly hurt that he had to go to bed. Mr. Winsboro was also badly cut and bruised. The car was the worst smased of any ever seen here.

The accident was due to the fact that while driving the car something attracted Mr. Winsboro's attention for a moment, and he took his eyes off the pike. Te next instant the crash crash came.

TO GO TO VIRGINIA BEACH.

State Military Board Formally and Definitely Decides This Question.

Richmond, Va., June 6.—The State military board held an informal conference in the office of Adjutant General W.W. Sale yesterday afternoon, together with a number of staff officers, and formally and finally decided to hold the encampment of the Virginia volunteers at Virginia Beach, July 6th to 13th, as originally contemplated.

It will be recalled that there was a hitch in the program several weeks ago over a misunderstanding between the Norfolk-Southern and the State military authorities regarding both the rates submitted in the railroad's bid for the transportation of troops, as well as the terminal arrangements for the convenience of the soldiers. Conferences were held in Richmond and Staunton with representatives of the railroads and these matters straightened out and yesterday the board finally settled upon Virginia Beach. The railroad is to receive 40 cents for each soldier transporting baggage free, and will provide proper and adequate terminal facilities.

PAGE AND WILLARD.

Virginia's representation in the diplomatic service of the United States has been a question much discussed by the state papers ever since the presidential inauguration. Different factions of every state democracy have presented the claims of Dr. Thos. Nelson Page and Col. Joseph E. Willard, and the rights of the two men to diplomatic honors have received considerable space in the public prints. President Wilson has solved the difficulty very fairly, from our point of view, by deciding to appoint both gentlemen. Dr. Page to Italy and Col. Willard to Belgium. By thus doubly honoring the State the President has demonstrated two things. First, that he considers Virginia still capable of furnishing high grade men for important Federal positions; and second, that after listening to both sides on the question of appointments he will be guided by his own discretion after all.

OUR NEXT GOVERNOR.

Few men are destined to be honored by their States as Henry Carter Stuart is honored by Virginia. To be governor of this Commonwealth, chosen by the unanimous consent of the membership of the dominant party, is a sufficient indication of the calibre of the man who will occupy the governors' mansion for the coming four-year term. That he will be unopposed in the general election is likely, for few Republicans will care to undertake the race against a candidate who will probably win out even in their party stronghold in the ninth congressional district. Satisfactory to all factions of his party Governor Stuart will enter the high office with a united Democracy behind him. Independent in thought and action, true to the principles of his party, earnest of purpose, broad of vision, honest, fearless and true to the traditions of Virginia, he will prove an ornament to the office and will measure up to the high standard set by those who have made the governorship of this state a position which, to be properly filled, must ever be occupied by men who can honor Virginia in the highest and best sense.

District Attorney Whitman, of New York, announces that he will accept a nomination for mayor, if offered him by any regular political organization. That's right, politics be darned. He wants the job.

The National Press Club's spelling bee must have been a great success. We wonder whether any senator could spell lobbyist.

Now John D., kicks on his tax bill. For the love of Mike! There are one hundred and twenty-five automobile owners in this town helping him to pay it.

The doctor has been prescribing for T. R. again. He now suggests that the Progressive and Republican parties get together, and that the old line leaders retire.

Mayor Gaynor suggests legislation to punish the end-seat hogs. It might do to turn them over to some local abattoir with a view to reducing the price on pork.

BOLT KILLS AND SHOCKS.

One of Family Struck Dead Outright, Others Injured.

Stroudsburg, Pa., June 6.—Death swift and sure and frightful havoc were wrought by a bolt of lightning which struck the home of George C. Hopple, East Stroudsburg, killed his son, Cleveland Hopple, instantly, severely injuring the father and badly shocking three other members of the household.

The father, George C. Hopple, who was in bed, emerged with contusions. His aged wife, daughter and grandchild were tossed about in the wreckage and are terribly shocked, but are expected to recover.

Shamokin, Pa., June 5.—As Oliver Smink and family slept in their home at Gowen City, early yesterday, a bolt of lightning entered the chimney and struck the second floor, badly wrecking it. Some of the inmates were hurled from bed by the shock and narrowly escaped death.

ON ANOTHER TOUR.

Dr. Garvey, Health Officer, and Sergeant Scott made another inspection of the Braddock House today. They found conditions in and about the place materialy changed since their first visit on Tuesday. The proprietor announced his purpose to keep the building in the future in a condition to meet the requirements of law.

Dr. Garvey and Sergeant Scott later visited a lunch house on King St., where they found conditions far from satisfactory. The proprietor was given a reasonable time in which to meet the demands of the health law.

Jack Johnson, negro pugilist, was sentenced to one year and one day in the Joliet, Ill., penitentiary and to pay a fine of $1,000 by Federal Judge Carpenter yesterday for violating the Mann act in the transportation of Belle Schrieber. Johnson was allowed to go free non his bond of $30,000 for two weeks until his attorney can prepare a writ of error. It is expected a writ of supersedeas will be issued out of this writ of error so that Johnson probably will continue at liberty until such time as the Court of Appeals shall pass on his case.

A riot broke out yesterday in the chamber of the Hungarian parliament when the premier announced the resignation of the cabinet. So turbulent became the scenes in and around the parliament building that troops had to be called to the scene. Cavalry was drawn up in the streets leading to the building, and machine guns were pointed about the building. The commander of the troops issued the order that none of the deputies should try to enter. Deputy Hedervary disregarded the order and attempted to get into the building, when the commandant galloped up drew his saber, and slashed Hedervary over the head, knocking him to the street unconscious.

THE LICENSE QUESTION. (Communicated.

Editor Gazette. It is to be hoped that the men that are so undecided, or rather can only see one way in which saloon men will be benefited will consider that there are other things as well as the license question. Think of what the saloon means to the home. Look at the poor wretched specimen of women, subjected to all kinds of hardships and in so many cases the best women that were ever born. Deprieved of every comfort of life for you know the men that visit the saloon are usually on salary and you know the salary will not support the family and the saloon too. When the family can no longer be kept together on account of drink the mother gone, in a great many instances to her well earned rest, the children scattered and the father b ythis time such a dedraggled and as he failed to support his wife so, also the children suffer. Follow the writer if you will, to the homes throughout the country. Find out why the children are there. They will lay the blame in most every instance on strong drink. The writer is in a position to make such a statement as this is about the majority of the dear boys and girls in the children's home of our own city.

If saloons can not be closed ever in our town, let us have high license so some will be forced out of business and engage in other business that will have a tendency to uplift mothers boys instead of ruining them. The evry is on every hand for upright men. We can not help but know we must have clean men if we want clean laws. Then we must have the proper school for our boys to provide every means. It makes capable men of them. The answer is to keep them out o fthe bar room so they may develop the brain as well as the body, so let us put the license high. Let the saloon se just what effect liquor has on the home and man for as some writer has said it is not the saloon man but his business that we hate.

MAY SELL ON SUNDAY.

Man Fined by the Mayor, Acquitted on Appeal.

Danville, Va., June 6.—A decision of far-reaching importance was rendered here a day or two ago, when I Roman, an orthodox Jew, fined some time ago in the mayor's court for doing business on Sunday, he having kept his place open and made sales on that day, on an appeal from the mayor's decision, was acquitted.

Able and lengthy argument were made by the attorneys for the defense and the Commonwealth, but the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty. In dismissing Roman, Judge Peatross stated that the constitution of the United States and the laws of Virginia gives every man the right to live according to his religion, and if he mantained an orderly place and closed up on Saturday he could keep open on the Sunday and would not be molested.

PLENTY OF VEGETABLES.

Most Country Produce Shows Declining Tendency.

While the market this week has been supplied with many kinds of vegetables, additional varieties will doubtless be on sale tomorrow.

Prices of all kinds of green stuff is low for the season. New potatoes 50 cents a peck. Fresh tomatoes bring 25 cents for two pounds. Fine new beets are selling for 8 cents a bunch. Green peas are down to 15 cents quarter peck. Fine lettuce is somewhat higher, and grings 8 and 10 cents a head.

Several new friuts are selling for the first time this season. Cantaloupes may be had for 10 cents each. Ripe watermelons from the south bring 50 and 60 cents each.

The meat market is at about the same stage as last week, there being no change in prices. Possibly a larger supply of fresh and salt pork, hams and shoulders will be on sale but fresh beef will hold its own price, the demand now being for steaks, chops, and the best roasts.

Picnics and outings will now create a greater demand for ham, and sliced meats which require no cooking. The dealers have prepared for this and display good selections of such meats together with fine sausage.

Japan's Rejoinder.

Japan's rejoinder to the United States' reply to her protest against the California anti alien land law, delivered personally by Ambassador Chinda to Secretary Bryan late Wednesday sets forth why the Tokio government continues to regard the Webb bill as discriminatory against the Japanese, in derogation of the equality of treatment prescribed by international law, and a violation of the treaty of 1911. Nothing in the nature of an ultimatum is contained in the note. tIs general tones is to invite further discusison of the controverted points, and it contains nothing tending to make up a final issue Secretary Bryan and the Ambassador agreed that no details should be made public.

TRUE TO SOLDIER LOVER.

Woman Dies After Keeping Guiding Light in Window for 50 Years.

Amsterdam, N. Y., June 6. — Miss Julia Frank, better known as "Mother Frank," is dead in her home at West Stony Creek, aged 72 years. Miss Frank is believed to have been the most remarkable woman in this section of the state. She adopted and raised ten children. Miss Frank's lover, a soldier in the Union Army was killed at the Battle of Bull Run and for over 50 years she has kept a light burning in her window expecting the return of the man she loved. The farm where she has spent her life is bequeathed to a maiden sister some years her junior on condition that the light be kept burning for the soldier lover.

After reading Japan's latest note on the California anti-alien land law, and just before a conference with Ambassador Chinda, President Wilson yesterday expressed the view that the new communication opened the way for "very interesting and friendly negotiations."

GREAT MASS OF PROOF.

Reports of 30,000 Cases of Kidney Trouble, Some of Them Alexandria Cases.

Each of some 6,000 newspapers of the United States is publishing from week to week, names of people in its particular neighborhood, who have used and recommended Doan's Kidney Pills for kidney backache, weak kidneys, bladder troubles and urinary disorders. This mass of proof includes over 30,000 testimonials. Alexandria is no exception. Here is one of the Alexandria cases.

Mrs. C. V. Gardner, 1211 Duke St., Alexandria, Va., says: "The cure Doan's Kidney Pills made for me some years ago had been permanent and I haven't needed anything since. I had not suffered very long before I took Doan's Kidney Pills and didn't really know what was the matter, but I got real bad with weakness and lameness through my back. For a few days I couldn't do my housework. I had to lie down most of the time and it was the same when I went to bed at night. I finally got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Leadbeater & Co.'s Drug store and they cured me."

Killed by Train.

Cape Charles, Va., June 6—William S. Tilghman, 34 years of age, a prominent young business man of Salisbury, Md., and ex-city councilman, was struck and instantly killed at the Junction of the B. C. & A. and N. Y. P. & N. tracks at Salisbury, Md. early yesterday morning. Mr. Tilghman was riding a bicycle and attempted to cross the track behind a train that was backing.

As he tried to turn his wheel, it was wedged between the rail and crossing, and before signals could be given, he was caught beneath the car and dreadfully mangled. Mr. Tilghman leaves a wife and two children.

RATTLERS IN A SCHOOLROOM.

Three Reptiles Let Loose Before Anxious Women.

Bloomsburg, Pa., June 6.— Three big and very much alive rattlers each a yard in length, were turned loose on the platform of a Bloomsburg Normal lecture room yesterday for the benefit of several cases in giology, in which feminity was largely represented. Shrieks and numerous "Ohs" welcomed the snakes, which were allowed to crawl around on the platform, with a caretaker to prevent their escape into the audience.

Their habits were commented upon by Professor D. Hartine, who forced open the jaws of the largest rattler and pried the fangs into striking position for the students' benefit. The audience, and especially the girls, breathed more easily when the snakes were again caged.

Edward Holleybeck, of Flint, Mich., was killed at the motordrome at Detroit, yesterday afternoon while practicing on a motorcycle. He was learning the track in preparation for racing, when he lost control of his machine. Going at full sped he shot to the top of the track, struck the guard rail and dropped several feet to the bottom. with the motorcycle on top of him.

Has a patented six-inch asphalt-cement welded pjoint that welds all the sheets permanently into one and gives you a continuous one-piece roof. There are no nail holes through this roof, for every nail head is covered by the full thickness of felt and asphalt, and permanently imbeded in the water tight joint.

Security roofing is economical and xtremely durable. It lasts for years and needs no repairs or painting. This is largely due to the fact that it is made of natural mineral asphalt—the best roofing material known—and has no coal tar in any form in its composition.

Security Roofing has perfect weather-proofing qualities and high resistance to all other destructive agencies, including fire.

While it would pay to buy good roofing, even if it cost double the price of a cheap roof, Security actually does cost less than many roofing materials of inferior weather-proofing qualities, and compares favorably with any . Furthermore, when the first cost is divided by the years of good service and the saving in repairs and painting are considered. Security is the most economical af oll known materials.

Security may be laid over old shingles or other composition roofing where surface is reasonably smooth. Order Now of

NEWS OF THE DAY.

President Wilson yesterday granted a reprieve of seven days to Tony Milano, whose hanging for the murder of eleven-year-old Harry Smith in Washington had been set for today, in order that he may examine the papers in the case more completely, as well as to give the condemned man plenty of time to prepare for the final ordeal should the President fail to commute the sentence.

Joseph M. Coldwell, Industrial Workers of the World leader of the strike at the plant of the Draper Co., at Hopedale, Mass., was found guilty yesterday of uttering menaces and threatening speeches, and sentenced to three months in the house of correction.

Ill health,, due to overstudy and the loss of money by investments in Wall street, was the cause assigned by Dr. Timothy Lehane, coroner's physician, for what he described as the suicide of Dr. Stephen O. Storck, a surgical dentist, who plunged from the window of his apartment in the Coronet Hotel New York, early yesterday and was killed by the fall of eight stories to the courtyard. The fatal plunge followed a whist party.

Reports from the districts in Germany swept by the heavy storms Wednesday sa ythat five persons have been drowned and seven killed by lightning. Damage aggregating several milions has resulted from the storms:

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, will undergo a serious operation for mastoiditis in the Episcopal Eye, Ear and Throat Hospital, in Washington today. Gomeprs ca meto Washington from Atlantic City Tuesday, following a relapse.

One hundred and fifty boilermakers quit work at the Fletcher Iron foundry at Hoboken, N. J., yesterday rather than serve under a forman who, they say, insulted the American flag. According to the men, this foreman, a Canadian, waved an English flag, and declared it was the only flag fit to live under. The boilermakers sent a committee to Andrew Fletcher, their employer, and demanded the foreman's discharge. When this was refused, they struck.

Enraged, he said, because he came home and found his wife missing, Robert Roach, 29, a laborer of Canton, Ohio, last night went to the home of his wife's parents and shot and killed his mother-in-law, and 16-months-old baby, and fatally wounded another sister-in-law. Later, when his arrest was attempted, he shot a member of the Canton police in the leg and bot another man in the hand. After the shooting Roach took refuge in an up stairs room and attempted to asphyxiate himself. He was captured.

While on the stand in the United States District Court in Columbus, O., yesterday Lee Gage, of Wheeling W. Va., secretary of the Iron Moulders' Union, startled the court by confessing that he killed Detective John J. Reardon, of Pittsburgh and Stubenville in 1910 during the labor riots. The strangest part of the confession is that Gage was tried for the murder of Reardon at Stubenville more than a year ago and acquitted. Under the laws of Ohio a man cannot be placed in jeopardy twice for same offense, so it is impossible to bring Gage to trial again, despite the admission of his guilt.

A gigantic conspiracy to arm the Ulster Uinonists for pupose of resisting the coming home rule regime in Ireland has just been discovened by Scotland Yard detectives When news became known her it created a sensation and especially as the discovery of the plot follows closely upon the seizure of twelve tons of rifles and ammunition at Belfast on Monday. It is understood that another large consignment will be seized in the near future, as the police claim to have discovered the factory in London where the arms were made, or at least assembled, and they state that over forty tons of arms and ammunition are now stored there.

The body of Alfred Austin, the late poet laureate, who died on Monday, was cremated at Golder's Green, England, yesterday without ceremony. By permission of King George, a memorial service was held in the Chapel Royal, St. James Palace, at the same hour. and was ended by members of the Austin family.

William J. Burns, the American detective was received yesterday in private audience by Pope Pius X.
